CUT THE CROP.

Not More than Half Usual Acreage Put Out.

Nearly Seven Hundred Hogheads of Tobacco Sold on Local Market this Week.

Hoghead sales this week amounted to 644, and receipts were 450. Receipts for the year, 4,625 hogheads, and sales for the year, 2,871. There were only 44 rejections. No material change reported in quotations.

The sales of loose tobacco on the floor by R. M. Woodriddle & Co. were very heavy this week, and prices obtained were satisfactory. Leaf was firm, while lugs were in active demand.

The growing crop has been put out and is looking well. A number of farmers over the country have been interviewed in regard to the 1904 acreage and a summary shows that there is not more than fifty per cent of the usual crop planted in Christian. While some planters have put out the usual acreage, there are others who only planted one fourth of a crop. This is especially noticeable among the larger farmers. One South Christian planter cultivated one hundred acres last year and this year he only put out fifteen acres. Another, who last year set seventy-five acres, this year put out eighteen. There are two reasons for this condition. In the first place there has been a scarcity of plants and in the second, the low price of the weed caused many farmers to cut their crop short, planting more corn.

HUNDREDS LOST

Steamboat Horror in the Waters Of New York

Sunday School Excursion Turned Into a Holocaust of Fire.

New York, June 15.—Five hundred persons, mostly children, perished today by the burning of the excursion steamer General Slocum near Hell Gate in the East river.

The Slocum with the annual Sunday-School excursion of St. Mark's German Lutheran church of this city on board was proceeding up the river to one of the many resorts of Long Island Sound. When near 125th street persons on shore saw smoke and flames spring from the upper part of the crowded steamer.

A panic ensued on the boat almost instantly. The crowds on the forward deck began to spring overboard or to crowd to the after part of the boat. The screams of the terrified passengers could be heard on shore and hundreds of small boats immediately put off to the rescue. Owing to the rocks on either side of the channel at this point it had been impossible to beach the vessel.

The captain stuck to his post at the wheel and headed the vessel straight up the river for North Brother Island, where she was put aground in the shallow water. Several hundred feet of open water still lay between the burning steamer and the shore and many persons perished either in the water or on the burning vessel after she had been beached.

It was estimated that the steamer carried more than 2,000 persons. She was the largest excursion steamer in these waters and could carry 4,000 people.

Death Toll Exceeds 600.

New York, June 16.—The loss of life will exceed 600. Approximately 600 bodies have been recovered and are now being tagged at the morgues of Bellevue Hospital and Harlem. Divers were still busy at a late hour taking bodies from the hold of the vessel, which, they say, is choked with the remains of human beings, while the bodies of scores who leaped or were thrown into the river have not been recovered.

The Knickerbocker Steamship Company, which owns the Gen. Slocum, officially states that the number of passengers was 573, that being only one-third of the vessel's capacity. It is thought, however, that there were several hundred children in arms, for whom fares are not usually charged on these trips, on board.

The scenes on the deck of the steamer as she proceeded up the East river was one of merry-making customary on such occasions. The mass of flags fluttered in the June breezes, the bands were playing and the children were singing, dancing and waving handkerchiefs in answer to the salutations of those on shore or from passing steamers.

Bodies in Whirlpools.

The scene was one of frightful panic, with women and children jumping overboard and being dashed by the channel whirlpools against the vessel's sides. Women and children were crowded together on the hurricane deck, which soon burned away and fell, and it is believed that most of those on this deck were burned.

The after rail gave way and the passengers who had crowded against it were pushed into the river. Mothers and children became separated and frantically sought each other, while in several cases fathers and mothers gathered their children together and jumped with them into the water. Little children holding each other by the hand jumped together, and were afterward found clasped in each other's arms. It is alleged that men fought with women to escape,

Flame-Enveloped Run.

During her flame-enveloped run to North Brothers Island the Gen. Slocum's whistles kept blowing for assistance, but before the whistles began to blow several tugs, the Captains of which had seen the outbreak of the flames, started after the vessel, by a yacht, while several rowboats put out from the shore.

The number of these craft constantly grew, and not the least dramatic incidents of the catastrophe were the efforts of the people on these boats to rescue those who had jumped overboard from the burning vessel. Men crowded to the rails of the tugs and caught up the drowning persons as they were borne by the current. There were many thrilling rescues by this means.

North Brothers Island, where the vessel was beached, contains a scarlet fever ward. The patients who witnessed the disaster were ordered indoors, and the doctors hastened to the rescue of those who had been washed ashore, but some scores of persons died while they were being attended to.

Capt. Van Smaick and his two pilots, Edward Ward and E. N. Weaver, have been arrested.

NEW MATRON.

Miss Fannie Hancock Promoted From Ward Duty.

Superintendent Milton Board has filled the vacancy in the position of matron at the Asylum by the appointment of Miss Fannie Hancock, of Henderson county. Miss Hancock was promoted from the position of ward attendant, and is well qualified for the place by long experience in Asylum work. There were many applicants for the place, but Dr. Board decided to promote Miss Hancock, although she was not an applicant.

Clergymen Who Have Been Rewarded for Their Ready Wit and Facetiousness.

Perhaps the earliest instance of ecclesiastical promotion won by a pun is that of a curate named Joseph, who was prompted by Swift to take this text for a sermon preached in St. Patrick's cathedral, Dublin, before the viceroy, "Butler," duke of Ormond: "Yet did not the chief Butler remember Joseph, but forgot him."

Apropos of puns, promotion and the sea of York, here is a good story of a living given by an archbishop of York in reward for an impertinent personal pun. The archbishop, Sir William Dawes, entertained his clergy to dinner at the expense of the living of his wife, Mary, who appears to have been a regular Mrs. Proudie at once to his grace and to the diocese. At dinner the archbishop apologized, with a sigh, for things not being in the apple order that prevailed when his dear, dead wife, Mary, was alive. The living of his wife's estate punster, be-headed, with a sad shake of his head: "She, indeed, was Mare Pacificum." A curate who knew too well what a tartar the deceased lady was, rejoined: "Aye, my lord, but she was first Mare Mortuum!" and was absolved by the archbishop for this impertinent pun with a living of £500 a year.

Interesting Points About the Well-Known Sassafras Which May Be New to Some.

Comparatively few of the many to whom sassafras is a household word know that it bears flowers. These appear simultaneously with the first tender leaves, and, being of the same color with them, are apt to be overlooked by all but the nectar-seeking bees. Yet these blossoms are among the loveliest sights of our spring, contributing much to the beauty of landscapes.

Sugar and the Teeth.

There is a prevalent notion that if children are allowed to eat sugar they will have bad teeth as a consequence. There is no foundation whatever for such a notion. The negroes of the West Indies are excessive consumers of sweets. They eat an enormous amount of sugar-cane, molasses and raw sugar. Yet these people have particularly fine teeth. Whatever other injuries sugar may be capable of doing to the human system, it is very certain that it does not do any injury to the teeth, either in old or young persons.—Medical Talk for the Home.

"Crazy Kate" Murray, the aged and demented woman who has been an object of pity and interest to passers by at the curb at the northwest corner of Fifth and Jefferson streets for nearly twenty years, was sent to the workhouse for three months this morning.

According to a well-authenticated story told of the woman, she was a bride at the opening of the Civil war, when her husband joined the Confederate army. He never returned from the war and grief over it unbalanced her mind.

At almost all times of the day or night she is to be seen at Fifth and Jefferson streets eagerly scanning the faces of everyone who passes and looking up and down the street at frequent intervals. She says she still expects her husband to return from the war, and that she is waiting for him.

It is said that she has been sleeping under the steps of the Cathedral for some time and spending many of the coldest nights of the winter there. Cabmen who stand at the same corner, it is said, have several times saved her from starvation.

ELECTRIC LIGHT BULBS.

Thousands Turned Out Daily by a New York Factory in the Busy Season.

The process of making the miniature electric light bulbs that are used in such profusion now for decorative and advertising purposes is one requiring a great deal of manual skill, or, rather, skill both of the hand and mouth, for they are blown by mouth from glass tubes, which are imported specially for the purpose. The large bulbs used for ordinary lighting purposes are made by machinery.

The biggest factory for the manufacture of these tiny bulbs in this city, says the New York Times, turns out in the busy season nearly 3,000 bulbs a day. The first process is blowing the bulb. The end of the glass tube is softened in a gas flame and closed, and then a spot in the center of the tube is held in the flame until it becomes soft enough to work. When that point is reached the operator blows it up to the required size and then lays it aside. During the blowing process the tube is kept constantly turning in order to preserve the symmetrical outline of the bulb. This part of the work is done by men. Women do not seem to possess lung power enough for it.

While this is going on, girls in another part of the shop are at work soldering on the little specks of carbon which are to furnish the light to tiny wires. The bulbs are closed at one end, cut off the tube, and passed to a girl who sets the carbons into them and passes them on to another workman who anneals them on to a fork containing five bulbs, all communicating with a trunk tube. This in turn is annealed on a branch which contains five forks, so that every branch contains 25 bulbs. These branches are then taken to the exhausting room, where they are attached to a series of air pumps and the air is exhausted from them. Each bulb is then subjected to a gas flame again, and the end is hermetically sealed. After this come the minor operations of finishing, testing and fitting to sockets. Each lamp is tested three times before it is allowed to go out, and must also conform as to size to a standard measurement.

NO FUN IN BEING BEARER.

Which Led to a Suggestion Calculated to Lighten the Labor Thereof.

At a fashionable country wedding some picturesque features prevailed, relates London Tit-Bits. Bowers and flower terraces decked the grounds of the handsome residence of the bride's father, boasts with gay pendants flying were anchored in the lake in the garden, flower-girls and chorine girls led the way to the little neighboring church, singing and strewing roses in the path of the lovely bride, and all was as delightfully decorative as high art could make it.

Along the flower-strewn way the bride slowly advanced, carried in a sedan-chair by four stately bearers—her brothers and cousins. At intervals the four bearers set down their lovely burden—so the story goes—and mopped their moist brows. As they moved until again warm and weary. Finally, a brother of the bride went to the window of the sedan-chair and said, in a hoarse whisper: "Bertha, for goodness' sake, kick the bottom out and walk; it'll look just the same."

Greatest Ocean Depths.

The deepest sounding ever made by any vessel, says the National Geographic Magazine, was by the United States steamship Nero while on the Honolulu-Manila cable survey, with apparatus borrowed from the Albatross. When near Guam the Nero got 5,269 fathoms, or 31,614 feet, only 66 feet less than six miles. If Mount Everest, the highest mountain on earth, were set down in this hole, it would have above its summit a depth of 2,612 feet, or nearly half a mile of water.—N. Y. Times.

The Kissing Habit.

Ethnologists tell that among the primitive races kissing was unknown. The Lapps and Maoris today simply rub noses. Even the average native of Japan still knows nothing about kissing.

The French and the Germans are the great kissing races. The learned Erasmus, who visited England in Tudor times, says that the "mucocutaneous investment" was universal and that everybody kissed, so that he felt that he was being "kissed to death" when there. But science is now making a severe war on this too prevalent habit. The New York Medical Journal says that it is the efficient cause of much invidious bacterial infection. Even the Emperor of Germany has been forced to modify the osculatory habit.—Boston Globe.

These are malaria symptoms. Do not delay, but begin a course of treatment to head off the disease. Pure blood will withstand the attack of poison better than impure blood; and as pure blood is the result of a healthy condition of the stomach, you should get the stomach in order first. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a perfect stomach remedy, a gentle laxative and strengthens all of the organs of assimilation. Sold by druggists and dealers in medicines.

A JUROR GOES TO SLEEP.

Thus Saving Defendant's Life Who, on a Retrial, Was Acquitted—Other Strange Cases.

Hisso once again suggested that Justice, in the person of his majesty's judges, nods upon the bench, says the London Star, James' Gazette, that it is refreshing to see the other side of the medal. One small snooze saved a man's life. A juror, overcome in the box, slept while important evidence was given for the defense of a man charged with murder. An appeal was lodged against the verdict of guilty returned by a jury not all of whose members had heard the full evidence, and upon retrial the accused man was acquitted. Lord Melbourne was once the center of a strange little comedy at the Queen Victoria's dinner table. "Hush!" said her majesty. Looking round the guests saw Melbourne fast asleep, and the kindly queen would not have him disturbed. Poor, tired M. Thiers came to England in the agonizing days of the early seventies, and had an interview with Lord Granville. Struck by the silence with which his remarks were received, Granville looked at his guest, and found him in deep slumber. A diplomatic upset of fire-irons was the way out of the difficulty. But the bulk of us in these hurrying days are not blessed with his ability to slumber at will. Gladstone's health was never in jeopardy except when he could not sleep. After a spell of insomnia he wrote to a friend his thankfulness that "I am recovering the only great faculty which I ever possessed, the faculty of sleep." It was John Richard Cobden's good fortune that he could sleep well. "If I had not the faculty of sleeping like a dead fish in 30 minutes after the most exciting mental effort, and with the certainty of having oblivion for six consecutive hours, I should not have been alive now," he said in his old age. Bright was a poor sleeper. He told a roomful of distinguished people that his best speeches were composed in bed when he ought to be asleep. Dr. Dollinger, the great theologian, when 70 years of age, gave Gladstone a wrinkle for wooing sleep. His own difficulty he had combated just about that time by learning by heart three books of the Odyssey in order to repeat in bed, and so obtain rest.

CITY FINANCES.

Exhibit Showing Why the Levy Was Increased.

The following exhibit of city financial matters shows the absolute necessity for the recent increase in the tax levy.

Assessed value of property, white people, is $2,474,950. At $1.50 this raises $30,936.87. Total taxes, 980, @ $1.50, 1,470.00.

Making $32,406.87.

Of which can probably be collected, $31,000.00.

Add licenses, saloons, etc. 10,000.00.

Bank taxes, 2,883.00.

Total Revenues, $43,883.00.

FIXED CHARGES FOR 1904.

Water, $4,500.00.

Lights, 5,666.18.

Police, 5,100.00.

Fire Department, 2,500.00.

Salaries of Officials, 6,611.00.

Interest on Bonds, 2,440.00.

Colored Schools (1903), 750.00.

White Schools, 50c on $33,880, $13,337.80.

White Schools, 980 tickets, @ $1.50, 1,470.00.

Sinking Fund 20c, 5,420.00.

Total Expenditures, $45,788.98.

Deduct Income, 43,883.00.

Leaves Deficit, $1,906.98.

The above estimate does not include any charge for streets or for incidental expenses.

The item of $2,440 for interest comes out of the sinking fund and should be added to the credit side in the totals.

With close collections the city will have just about the amount of the increase as a margin for street work and incidental expenses.

TO CONFISCATE POPS.

Lexington Judge Will Have All Brought Into His Court Destroyed In His Presence.

Lexington, Ky., June 14.—Police Judge John J. Riley created another sensation in the police court this morning and established a precedent. ## GEN. S. D. LEE.

Is Chosen Commander of The United Confederate Veterans.

Louisville Gets The Reunion For Next Time—30,000 Present.

Nashville, Tenn. June 15.—Under every condition tending to a successful reunion, Nashville Monday officially welcomed the United Confederate Veterans and their friends, constituting a host conservatively estimated at 30,000 people. The exercises of the day took place in the Tabernacle, and every bit of space was taken long before the veterans were called to order by Gen. George W. Gordon, of Memphis, commander of the Tennessee division.

With bands and drum corps playing "Dixie," and the delegates cheering enthusiastically, the fourteenth annual reunion of United Confederate Veterans was called to order after which Gov. Frazier delivered an eloquent address of welcome. Seated upon the platform were many distinguished visitors. Gen. S. D. Lee's appearance as permanent presiding officer was the signal for a demonstration, which indicated his unanimous election as Commander-in-Chief. Committees on Credentials and Resolutions were announced, and Dr. R. H. McKim delivered a notable oration.

Gen. Lee Re-elected.

By unanimous vote Gen. Stephen D. Lee, of Columbus, Miss., was elected Commander-in-Chief of the United Confederate Veterans. Gen. Lee as second in command, took the rank of Commander-in-Chief when Gen. John B. Gordon died. It is the wish of the association that he continue as its head.

Louisville was selected as the place of meeting next year. Gen. Bennett H. Young also presented the invitation of the "Convention City" and Miss Ewell sang "Old Kentucky Home" so charmingly that the old soldiers could not resist.

Nashville extended an invitation for the Reunion to meet here next year, and every succeeding year, but the association early in today's session adopted a resolution favoring a new place each year.

GILSONITE AND ELATERITE.

These Hydrocarbons Are Taking the Place of Vegetable Rubber in Manufactures.

The uses to which gilsonite and elaterite are put are varied. There is a big shortage in the world's supply of vegetable rubber, and these hydrocarbons are now taking its place, says Mines and Minerals. They are made into a mineral rubber that unites perfectly with tree rubber, thus permitting a very large reduction in the amount of the latter used, and cheapening its cost materially. Second grade gilsonite is used for paving cement by melting it with petroleum residue and mixing it with ground asphaltic limestone and the requisite amount of sand. Gilsonite is also manufactured into varnishes, lacquers, waterproof paint for gun carriages, and steel and wood work of every description known to shipbuilding; as a paint for ship bottoms, it prevents barnacles from attaching themselves. It is also used for pipe coatings, reservoir coatings, floorings, roofings, and railroad work. The following is a further list of some of its uses: For coating barbed-wire fencing; coating sea walls of brick and masonry; coating paving brick; acid-proof lining for chemical tanks; roofing pitch; insulating electric wires; smoke-stack paint; coating poles, posts, and ties; lubricant for heavy machines; covering wood-block paving; binding pitch for carbon in making coal briquettes.

Elaterite is being largely used now to make flexible and heat-proof varnish and paints, which are excellent for coating shaft and tunnel timbers, for painting hemp and wire hoisting ropes, pump columns, pipes, chains, ore cars, and all steel and iron work where the surfaces are exposed; also for coating rats, tanks, and pan covers used in chlorination works, smelters and refineries, and in the cyanide process. On ironwork it prevents corrosion and resists great heats. On woodwork it prevents absorption and defies the elements.

THEY MUST EAT ARSENIC.

Persons Employed Where the Drug Is Handled Feel a Demand for It.

Eating of arsenic in Styria. The Styrians say that arsenic makes one plump and comely and gives one strength for great exertions such as running or mountain climbing, says the Chicago Tribune. Styria, in Austria, gives the world vast quantities of arsenic; the manufacture of this drug is indeed the main Styrian industry. They who make arsenic eat it, as a rule, for they say that only the arsenic eater can withstand the arsenic fumes.

These makers and eaters of the drug are comely. They have a blooming and clear color. They look much younger than they are.

"The foreman in a certain arsenic factory told me that in his boyhood, when he first came to the plant, he was advised to begin to eat arsenic lest his health suffer from the fumes," says a toxicologist. "He did begin, and his first two or three small doses gave him a sharp pain, like a burn, in the stomach, and this pain was followed by tremendous hunger and a violent, disagreeable excitement. But as his doses increased in frequency and size their effect became pleasant. There was no longer pain or excitement; on the contrary, there was a ravenous appetite and a mood of joyous activity wherein the youth could do three men's work."

"This chap, by the time he got to be 30, was taking four grains of arsenic a day. He looked at 30, with his clear pink and white color, no more than 23. He was robust as a blacksmith. But he said he would die at 45 or so, that being the age at which all the Styrian arsenic eaters die."

The drug is a preservative, and in Styria, when graves are opened, bodies are found to be as fresh 30 or seven years after interment as on the day they were lowered into the earth.

BROKE EVEN

On Double Header Played at Paducah Wednesday.

Clarksville Will Arrive This Morning For a Series of Games With Hopkinsville.

The Clarksville ball team will arrive here this morning and the first contest of the series with Hopkinsville will come off this afternoon at Athletic Park. The second game between the Tennesseans and the locals will be played tomorrow afternoon. These games promise to be well worth seeing and the attendance on both days will doubtless be very large.

Hopkinsville played a double header with Paducah, on the latter's grounds Wednesday, and the result was a stand off. Paducah won the first contest, the score being 3 to 1. In the second game Hopkinsville was victorious by the score of 4 to 1. On the same day at Clarksville Cairo lost to the Tennesseans, the score being 12 to 11 in favor of Clarksville. At Vincennes on Wednesday Henderson and the Indians played a double header. Vincennes took both games. In the first, the score was 9 to 1, and in the second 5 to 4.

In Tuesday's game at Paducah, between Hopkinsville and the Paducah, the latter won by the score of 3 to 2. At Cairo Tuesday Clarksville lost. Score, 3 to 2. At Vincennes, the same day, the Indians were victorious, the score being: Vincennes, 7; Henderson, 3. On Monday Hopkinsville and Cairo played a double header at Cairo. Hopkinsville took the first game by the score of 2 to 0. Cairo was victorious in the second game, the score being 4 to 3 in favor of the Egyptians. This was a ten inning contest. Paducah won from Clarksville at Paducah Monday. The game was a very close one, the score being 1 to 0. At Henderson Monday Vincennes lost to the Hens, being shut out. Score 4 to 0.

The following concerning the local boys was clipped from the Cairo Bulletin:

"The Hoppers are a clever set of gentlemen young fellows that make friends not only for themselves, but for the city holding the franchise. Hopkinsville has been very fortunate this year and last in securing ball players who know how and do conduct themselves in a manner that reflects great credit upon the gentlemen who are behind the team. They won their games from Cairo on the dead level and lost without a whimper, exhibiting the true sportsman's spirit."
